Simple, Beautiful and Beyond Smart

Android has always put you in control when it comes to staying notified and connected. Now you can take action directly from the notifications shade. Late for a meeting? Email everyone to let them know. Missed a call? Return the call instantly. And because notifications are expandable, you can get an even deeper look into the things that matter most, such as multiple emails or photos on Google+™.

Widgets Work Like Magic

With Jelly Bean it's now even easier to personalize your home screen. As you place widgets on the screen, everything else automatically moves to make room. When they're too big, widgets resize on their own. Interacting with your favorite apps and customizing your home screen has never been easier.
